

Dan Hicks & THE HOT LICKS

Dan Hicks and the Hot Licks annual extravaganza Holidaze in Hicksville 2010 to tour nationwide in support of the new release Crazy for Christmas!

Yes, Virginia there is a Santa Claus!

And, on October 12th courtesy of Surfdog Records, he is delivering the first ever Christmas album from Dan Hicks and the Hot Licks entitled Crazy for Christmas!

Take that classic DH & HL sound – swingin’ string band and three part vocals – and mix it up with some hot seasonal songs and you get what we’re talkin’ about –

Seven new Christmas tunes – all Dan Hicks originals – among them “I’ve Got Christmas By The Tail”, “Under the Mistletoe” and “Somebody Stole My Santa Claus Suit” –

Plus some favorites like you’ve never them heard before including “Run Rudolph Run”, a scat epic of “Carol of the Bells”, and “Here Comes Santa Claus”, that all make for a uniquely Hicks-ian Yuletide listening experience.

Reprising the production team from the DH & HL highly-lauded release Tangled Tales – Grammy-winning producer Chris Goldsmith and engineer Jimmy Hoyson -- Dave Kaplan and his Surfdog Records label decided it was high time the ‘walkin’ one and only’ Dan Hicks put his ‘lick’ on Christmas.

“Everybody has a Christmas album – Michelle Obama probably has a Christmas album out” says Dan.

Holidaze in Hicksville Tour 2010 hits the road nationwide beginning November 29.
