

The Reviews Are In From Across The Country!

~ STEVE LINDER, HOLLYWOOD BOWL ORCHESTRA MANAGER ~

“When we decided on a Chinese-themed weekend to close our 2003 Season, we immediately wanted to include THE PEKING ACROBATS as our special guests. The results exceeded our wildest expectations! The performances were thrilling, the professionalism first-rate and the joy that transferred from the stage to the audience was more than clearly evident...We look forward to having you back at the Bowl soon - our patrons are already asking!”

~ CHICAGO TRIBUNE ~

“At no time have we seen anything like THE PEKING ACROBATS. Feats of clowning, dexterity, grace, strength and coordination rippled from the stage in a series of pleasurable waves. One was left waterlogged in wonder.”

~ ANCHORAGE DAILY NEWS ~

“The gasps of amazement said it all...gymnastic display of such awesome pyrotechnics that they knocked the capacity audience on its ear.”

~ VARIETY ~

‘A’ is for acrobats and astounding, amusing, audacious and accomplished, accurate and attractive, and admirable, all of which describe, though not completely, THE PEKING ACROBATS.”

~ SEATTLE TIMES ~

“Nearly everything THE PEKING ACROBATS did last night was amazing – and stunning and breathtaking and WOW!”

~ LOS ANGELES TIMES ~

“THE PEKING ACROBATS regularly passed from the seemingly impossible to the virtually unbelievable.”

~ THE BOSTON GLOBE ~

“...An afternoon full of outstanding feats of agility, balance, coordination, and showmanship by THE PEKING ACROBATS - an entertaining and instructive survey of ancient Asian circus acts!”

“The Greatest Show on Earth might be the registered trademark of Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey, but THE PEKING ACROBATS demonstrated that awesome entertainment isn't limited to the Western Hemisphere... Jackie Chan could no better and THE PEKING ACROBATS didn't have the luxury of a second take!”

~ THE CHICO NEWS & REVIEW ~

“...A seemingly inexhaustible cavalcade of acrobatic wonders! Lighting and choreography combined to create a symmetrical mobile tableau conveying a sense of ornate delicacy and nearly impossible control of balance!”

~ THE FORT PIERCE TRIBUNE (FLORIDA) ~

“The audience witnessed amazing feats of skill, strength and beauty, demonstrations of such extraordinary control of their minds and bodies, such coordination of concentration and balance that it would not have seemed impossible for these performers to also leave the pull of gravity and to fly!”

~ THE DESERT NEWS (SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH) ~

“You needed to see it to believe it! Thursday night's performance by THE PEKING ACROBATS - direct from the People's Republic of China - was awesome! A colorful introduction highlighted the acrobats' graceful modern-dance style and bright costumes...the strength of these agile performers was quite stunning!”

~ THE MILWAUKEE JOURNAL ~

“Rarely has a Pabst Theatre crowd found itself so roused as it was by this Chinese troupe, which wrung gasps, yells and seat-rattling applause from its fans. This show had all the wonder and simplicity of an Oriental painting come to life!”

~ THE EDMONTON JOURNAL ~

“It was all too easy to forget the feats were real. With the flexibility and strength of gymnasts, the grace of dancers and the showmanship of circus performers, this troupe from China wowed the crowd! The show had all the elements of a circus, yet to call it that wouldn't do it justice!”

~ JEAN-PHILIPPE MALATY, ASPEN SANTA FE BALLET EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR ~

“Everyone in the audience was so impressed with the passion and dedication of the performers and left the theater inspired by seemingly impossible feats and the beauty of the human spirit!”
