

Published: May, 2007
For Immediate Release:

PEKING ACROBAT WANTED FOR VEGAS HEIST

Shaobo Qin, former member of the internationally acclaimed Peking Acrobats, returns with George Clooney, Brad Pitt, and the entire all-star cast of Ocean's Thirteen, the latest in an action/caper series from Warner Bros. Pictures. Just back in the US from the Cannes Film Festival, Qin will be involved with many nation-wide activities as a ramp up to the Ocean's Thirteen premiere (June 8) including the Peking Acrobats' performance at the movie's premiere after-party at Grauman's Chinese Theatre in Hollywood.

Qin won the starring role as Yen in Ocean's Eleven (2001) after being spotted by Oscar-winning director Steven Soderbergh while rehearsing the Peking Acrobats' famous "Double-Pole Act." Two years later, he reprised his role in the sequel, Ocean's Twelve. Qin more recently appeared in the film "Funky Monkey" with Roma Downey and Matthew Modine.